

JUNE 2025

Anne LaBastille WOMEN'S WRITING WEEKEND

Join us at Great Camp Sagamore for a reading and writing retreat. The program includes writing workshops, reflective paddling, arts-based activities, technical writing, experiential learning, and Adirondack-based readings to contemplate the sense of place in nature writing. The workshop is a collaboration with the Adirondack Center for Writing and is dedicated to the memory of Anne LaBastille, whose passion for the Adirondacks led to her writing the landmark series of "Woodswoman" books. The program is made possible through the Anne LaBastille Estate.
